

First Bank of the Americas 1180 Third Ave Branch - New York

Size

5,000 square feet

Major Programmatic Elements

A prototype study was done to be used in the modernization of ten branches. This was the first branch built. It included full service teller area, total redesign of the working operations area, retaining as much of the existing mechanical and core services

Cost

500,000

Nature of Firm's Responsibilities

Architectural /Engineering Design
Contract Documents
Interiors
Security
Handicap Accessible Design
Construction
Construction Supervision

Owner

First Bank of the Americas

Date of Completion

1994

Reception Area

Main Banking Hall

Complete renovation of an existing bank. Included the reduction of the main banking floor safe deposit vault, telecommunications center and the creation of a new operations area.