

Port Authority of New York and New Jersey Bus Terminal, New York

Size

40,000 square feet of Display Area

Major Programmatic Elements

Our firm completed a feasibility study, programing phase, design development, contract documents and construction services

Cost

5,000,000

Nature of Firm's Responsibilities

Feasibility Study
Detail program
Architectural /Engineering Design
Signage Computer Models

Owner

TDI

Date of Completion

Design (1999)
Implementation (2000)

Computer Model of the Signage System at Port Authority @ 42nd Street

For the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey and for TDI, the firm is helping to revitalize one of the city's largest public transportation hubs. The project includes the exterior renovation of the Port Authority Bus Terminal, incorporating a new super-sign program that will create a vital revenue source to support bus terminal operations and maintenance.

Signage System at Port Authority of New York and New Jersey Bus Terminal